

How to Contact Our Directors

Stockholders and other interested parties may contact any member (or all members) of the Board (including without limitation the director that presides over the executive sessions of non-management directors, or the non-management directors as a group), any committee of the Board of Directors or any chairperson of any such committee by mail or electronically. To communicate with the Board of Directors, any individual directors or any group or committee of directors, correspondence should be addressed to the Board of Directors or any such individual directors or group or committee of directors by either name or title. All such correspondence should be sent by mail to:

Brixmor Property Group Inc.
c/o General Counsel
420 Lexington Avenue
New York, New York 10170

or by sending an email to PresidingIndependentDirector@brixmor.com. Such communications may be done confidentially or anonymously.

The Company's General Counsel, or in his absence another member of the Legal Department, will open all communications received for the sole purpose of determining whether the contents represent a message to the directors. If a complaint or concern involves accounting, internal accounting controls or auditing matters, the correspondence will be forwarded to the Chairperson of the Audit Committee. If no particular director is named, such communication will be forwarded, depending on the subject matter, to the Chairperson of the Board or Chairperson of the Audit, Compensation or Nominating and Corporate Governance Committee, as appropriate.

Anyone who has concerns regarding (i) questionable accounting, internal accounting controls and auditing matters, including those regarding the circumvention or attempted circumvention of internal accounting controls or that would otherwise constitute a violation of the Company's accounting policies or (ii) retaliation against employees who voice concerns about such accounting, internal accounting controls and auditing matters may communicate these concerns by writing to the attention of the Chairman of the Audit Committee at the address set forth above, by calling 1-877-874-8416 at any time or by accessing www.Alertline.com, selecting Brixmor.com and submitting a message.
